

PRC Member Duties

Department: Residential Life

Unit: Residential Student Conduct

Responsibilities: Protect the rights and responsibilities of students living in the UMBC residential communities. Uphold the Residential Life policies, rules, and regulations as outlined in the Rights and Responsibilities Guide. Hold each member of the community accountable for their actions through a restorative adjudication process. Ensure that each student receives a fair and impartial hearing. Dedicate approximately one hour a week to attend hearings and meetings with Council advisors. Arrive early to hearings in order to prep for cases. Maintain strict confidentiality concerning all parties in Council hearings. Be familiar with Residential Life rights and responsibilities. Be professional and responsible members by notifying advisor in advance when you cannot attend a hearing, dressing professionally, and having a friendly demeanor.

Minimum Qualifications: Must be a current residential student at UMBC. Must maintain a minimum 2.5 cumulative grade point average. Must be in good academic and judicial standing with UMBC and maintain this status throughout the tenure as a member. Must be able to commit at least one hour a week during the semester in addition to trainings.